"Hail to thee Dear College"

EAST CAROLINA . . . the name and title which means so much to all who have trod upon her grounds . . . the name which acts as a pin point, pricking and probing into the corners of one's mental machinery and bringing back phases of reminiscence that are so characteristic of well-rounded campus life. The pattern set for days and nights on the East Carolina campus sifts into a recipe of contentment and happiness. Classes in Graham, Flanagan, and grand old Austin . . . gym in Wright Building . . . crowds around post office boxes between classes, blocking the entrance to the dining hall . . . the scurrying and confusion around Cotten Hall on Sunday nights when women students return to check in after week-ends off campus . . . the original jargon of the Soda Shop crowd . . . the solemnity of the library . . . the variety of names dubbed on the men's dorms . . . these thoughts and so many more equally pleasant ones return spontaneously whenever EAST CAROLINA is mentioned. "Hail to thee, our dear ol' school!"

"Keep the colors Flying Always... Dear

Old Teachers College.... Hail to thee "

E. C. HOLLAR, B.S., M.A.

East Carolina ADMINISTRATION

DR. JOHN D. MESSICK
President, East Carolina Teachers College

of Nineteen Fifty-One

Troubled times confront all peace-loving people today. What the future portends no one can with certainty predict. However, you students are fortunate in having the basic foundation upon which to build a superstructure of great importance. May your lives be fully enriched with God's blessings and guidance to enable you to be outstanding citizens in helping mold a democratic world where the value of the human personality will transcend all materialistic philosophy.

Fraternally yours.

“Remember . . .”

We cannot forget our faculty . . . we cannot forget the people who have had so much to do with the directing of our destinies . . . from all we have learned something. We laughed with them, we worked with them . . . we extolled their good points, we griped about their bad ones . . . we went to their classes sometimes happy, sometimes sad . . . but we always learned something—something that might be useful too during our long journey on the hard road ahead of us.

No, we cannot forget. We will remember our faculty, our administration, our staff . . . we will remember them all.

Dark, ain't it? Where to, gals? Pretzel—where's the beer? This is registration?????

The Military

U. S. AIR FORCE R. O. T. C.

The Air ROTC unit at East Carolina, headed by Major Lomax L. May, Professor of Air Science and Tactics, is a detachment of the Fourteenth Air Force. Its strategic mission is the preparation, in the administrative and logistical aspects of air operations, of qualified young men for service in that branch of our nation's defense structure that is becoming increasingly instrumental in the seemingly constant battle to preserve peace in the world—the United States Air Force.

Since its activation in 1948 the unit has experienced an enormous growth in enrollment. Beginning with only 76 members in September of 1948, it now boasts an enrollment of 236 cadets, a number almost quadruple the initial enrollment figure.

The curriculum is divided into a basic course and an advanced course. In certain cases, men with previous wartime military service are exempt from taking the basic course. Upon successful completion of the prescribed course or courses, and upon recommendation by the Professor of Air Science and Tactics, a cadet is commissioned as a second lieutenant in the United States Air Force Reserve.

The Air ROTC unit is truly synonymous with East Carolina's expansion and progress, and its rapid growth in the face of impending hostilities is symbolic of the patriotic desire for America to continue to reign supreme on the battlefield, on the high seas, and in the air.

CADETS

One of the outstanding campus events of the year at East Carolina was the Second Annual Military Ball, held in the Wright Building on December 2, 1950.

The highlight of this formal occasion was the announcement that Miss Evelyn Moore, of Portsmouth, Virginia, escorted by Cadet Cecil Winslow, had been named Queen of the Ball by the Cadets. She was awarded the title of Honorary Cadet Lieutenant Colonel by Major Lomax L. May, Professor of Air Science and Tactics and Commanding Officer of the local AROTC unit.

Shown below are President Messick, Miss Moore, Cadet Winslow, and Major May.

Activities

OUR STUDENT

Democracy in action—that's what we have on our campus when it comes to our student government. It is associated with the National and State Student Government movements, and keeps the student body in close contact with items of interest to them as college students. Each student may attend any meeting of the association which he desires, and may vote on any matter brought before a student mass meeting. Since this organization controls the student activity fund, all appropriations to clubs or organizations must come through the action of this body. This in itself is a big task, but there are others equally as important which the legislature has to act upon. Its countless committees are ever striving to improve conditions for the students of EAST CAROLINA.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS OF NEWS

The TECO ECHO, student newspaper of East Carolina, celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary, its first issue having been circulated on the campus December 19, 1925. In conjunction with the recognition of its quarter century of outstanding service to the college, the staff sponsored an anniversary dance.

In its second year as a weekly, the paper has attempted to maintain high standards of journalistic technique and present to the campus a newspaper worthy of being published at East Carolina. The TECO ECHO has striven to present in readable form a clear view of the stream of life at East Carolina, reporting news events, interpreting on the editorial page, and always searching for opportunities to improve itself and the college.

The TECO ECHO has received many honors through the years from the Associated Collegiate Press and the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, including Medalist rating in its twenty-fourth year from C.S.P.A., and has become established on the campus as the voice of the students and as an outlet of expression to lovers of journalism.

THE 1951

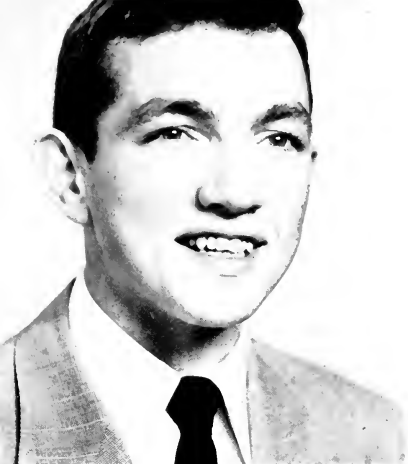

The questions, the answers, the shoe leather worn out, and all other countless problems have finally emerged into a new TECOAN.

Sometimes we felt like quitting, but more often someone would visualize a new idea and the work would begin anew.

We have enjoyed working for you . . . we hope that you will enjoy looking at our work.

Dr. John O. Reynolds,
Faculty Advisor

MUSIC

There is naught that is more inspiring than music. In its every tempo and arrangement music stirs up an emotional feeling in the hearts of everyone. It is no small wonder that every institute of learning strives to acquire a music department of excellence, for music plays a major part in the phase of all our lives. East Carolina has one of the finest music departments boasted by southern colleges. In voice and instrument, East Carolina has one of the finest training offered anywhere.

For dancing and concert pleasure, students of East Carolina are fortunate in having two very fine music ensembles on the campus. They are the Bob Lee Orchestra, and the College Band.

The "Best Band in Tar-Heel Land" has steadily improved since its organization in 1946, and is now rated as one of the top ranking dance bands in North Carolina. The band's professional outlook, and its efforts to produce the best possible music has made it a favorite of everyone who appreciates the finest in music for dancing and listening.

For the best in concert and game-time entertainment, it is the East Carolina College Band under the capable direction of Herbert Carter. The band has furnished a various array of colorful marches at football games, together with stirring music. Its performances at varied concerts, and assembly programs have been highly enjoyed by everyone.

"We like to have fun in a wholesome way," say the members of the Young Women's Christian Association. The Y on the campus has become a symbol of worship, recreation, and good clean fun for all who want to participate. In an effort to obtain funds for the Student Service Fund drive this year, a hobby show and square dance were sponsored by the group. The Y-Hut is open every Thursday night so that students may have use of the room for recreation. Other traditional events include Vespers every Friday night, helping a needy family at Christmas, Big Sister program, and a Retreat for council members.

From Wilson to Ragsdale, from the Soda Shop to the Port Terminal, we have roamed during the past year. While we were roaming, something important was always happening. Alben "The Veep" Barkley visited our campus and the Republicans left . . . the bass horn man of the band struggled with the wind during the annual lawn concert . . . another campus beauty won the coveted Teco Echo "Miss Summer School" title . . .

Time flew as only tempus can fugit and Homecoming came—Miss Slay Hall rode high on a Model A . . . the dorms were decorated . . . we whipped the Catamounts of Western Carolina. Tempus fugit some more and that Al Capp inspired phenomenon (Sadie Hawkins Day) rolled around one more time. Eleanor Steber sang in Wright . . . the Military had their annual ball.

Yes, they happened and we saw them happen. Let's let them live in our hearts as memories of our Alma Mater.

Here is East Carolina's athletic department which guided the college through one of its most successful years in health and physical education. They are, left to right, top row: Howard Porter, head basketball coach; Robert L. (Jack) Boone, head baseball coach; Dr. N. M. Jorgenson, East Carolina Athletic director; William E. (Bill) Dole, head football coach, and Dr. Charles G. DeShaw, instructor. Bottom row, left to right: Miss Margaret Tift and Miss Nell Stallings, both instructors and directors of women's athletics.

Sports history at East Carolina Teachers College is definitely becoming of a more vivid, exciting and pleasing nature. A new athletic era is dawning for the Buccaneers—the purple-and-gold clad legions who take to the field against East Carolina foes. That cry of "Here come the Pirates!" is giving new chills of fear to other North State conference clans, and to non-conference foes who meet the Buccos on fields of battle.

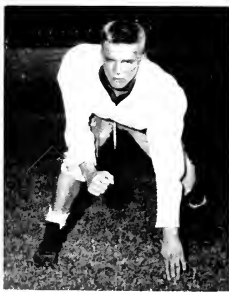

Taking the course of this new trend toward greatness is the East Carolina gridiron aggregation. Since Coach William E. (Bill) Dole stepped to the helm of the Pirate football machine in 1949, the calibre of football exhibited here has risen greatly.

In '49, the Pirates won their first football game in two years. They went on to win four, tie one and lose five that year and ended the season tied for seventh place with High Point in the North State conference. The Bucs' loop record was one win, one tie and four losses.

This year's outfit, with the great Roger Thrift leading the way, improved greatly on that record. The 1950 campaign ended with the Bucs sporting seven triumphs and only three defeats, five of these victories being in conference play while two defeats were to loop foes.

By virtue of this 5-2 mark within the conference, Coach Dole's charges ended the season in fourth place, just a half game behind third place Lenoir Rhyne. In fact, the Bears gained third by playing one more conference game than the Bucs. The whole upper bracket of the loop ran a close race for the top spot. Here's the way the top four looked at the conclusion of the season:

Team	W	L	T
Appalachian	7	0	1
Elon	6	1	1
Lenoir Rhyne	6	2	0
East Carolina	5	2	0

Although the Pirates didn't win the title this year, they won great acclaim in the fact that Roger Thrift, Buc quarterback, raked in about all the honors possible for one footballer to accumulate. Thrift was named on the All-North State conference team and was elected co-captain of that mythical outfit. He was voted by coaches as the most valuable player in the conference. He won a berth on several All-State teams, and received honorable mention in Little All-America ratings.

Roger set an unofficial conference passing record, tossing for 1,907 yards in the ten games the Pirates played. Twenty of his aeriels went for touchdowns. He connected on 124 of 257 passes. This year was the second that Thrift made the All-Conference aggregation.

Frank Maenne, rugged Pirate end, also won All-Conference honors. He, along with Dwight Shoe, another Buc flankman, snagged the majority of Thrift's passes. Maenne was one of the leading scorers in the conference. Shoe received honorable mention in the votes for the All-Conference squad, as did Don McKenzie, a standout lineman in Dole's defensive unit.

The Bucs spanked the Newport News Apprentice School Eleven, 21-7, on the sailors' gridiron to open the 1950 season. Ground play featured this game, with Jack Britt, Tom Swain, Bill Darby and Jack Benzie exhibiting some fancy running.

Playing their second game away from home, the Piratememen won over Lenoir Rhyne by 27-19 at Hickory. Bill Smith intercepted a pass and streaked for a touchdown with the score standing at 20-19 in the final period, to clinch the victory. Thrift gave his first real passing display as he completed 13 of 30 tosses for 235 yards. The defense was led by Bobby Hodges, Buck Hardee, Don McKenzie and Wally Robinson.

Hampden-Sydney upset the locals in the first home game of the year. The Tigers, after trailing for three periods, punched over three touchdowns in the fourth quarter to gain a 33-26 triumph. The Pirates seemed to fall apart in that last period. Thrift's passing was again superb, however.

The Bucs suffered their first conference loss to Elon by a 26-16 count on the Christians' field. The game was played in a slow mist of rain, but Thrift still connected on 21 of 43 aerials for 324 yards. Elon's powerful ground attack proved to be too much for the locals, however, as their defense weakened in the second half. The Doleman held a 10-7 lead at half-time, as Buck Hardee, Pirate extra point specialist, broke a 7-7 deadlock in the closing minutes of the second quarter by booting a field goal.

East Carolina gave a Homecoming crowd of 7,000 a splendid display of football as the Bucs overwhelmed Western Carolina Teachers College, 36-6. Both the offensive and defensive units played brilliant ball. A combined ground and air attack was almost spotless as the locals swarmed over the Catamounts. Downfield blocking was beautiful as several long runs were ripped off by Pirate backs.

The Buccaneers walloped Guilford, 26-7, at Greensboro to move into third place in conference standings. The Pirates defense was the difference in this affair. Offensive line play was led by Bill McDonald, Jesse Aldridge, Doc Smith and Buck Wilson. Johnny Smith, who took over for injured Tom Swain at fullback, played the full sixty minutes and was brilliant both on offense and defense. Britt's 60-yard TD dash after a toss from Thrift was probably the outstanding play of the game, however.

Playing before the largest crowd of the year, nearly 8,000 fans, East Carolina battled to an impressive 20-12 triumph over the Cherry Point Marines here. Thrift's passing was superb. He hit on 17 of 33 pitches for 298 yards. Bill Darby turned in a great running game and made several spectacular pass catches.

Appalachian blanked the Buccos, 20-0, at Boone in a game played in snow and mud, and in below-freezing weather. The EC air attack was almost completely stalled. The Apps unleashed a powerful ground attack led by their great Jace Groce. The Buc defense played a splendid game under the conditions they were subjected to, however.

East Carolina came roaring back the next week-end to overpower High Point, 26-0, in a game played on the Pirates' home grounds. This tilt was reeled off in cold, rainy weather also. A strong ground attack, led by Wilson in the line, was the main factor. Hodges and McKenzie shone on defense.

The Bucs, in their last game of the season, ran all over Atlantic Christian College. The Pirates, playing at home, piled up a 54-7 score as every player on both the defensive and offensive units shone brilliantly. The Bohunk trophy returned to East Carolina by virtue of this triumph.

From this history, one may easily gather that football is on the upgrade at East Carolina. We offer here a hearty vote of thanks to Coach Bill Dole and his entire squad for their splendid work.

and six losses. In their entire 21 games, they won 11 and dropped ten. In the conference tourney, Coach Howard Porter's boys reached the finals by whipping Lenoir Rhyne, regular season champs 76-72 and Catawba 68-63. was named on the NS All-Conference team. For the second straight year, he also landed a spot on the All-Tournament five. Along with another Bue, Freshman Star Bobby Hodges.

The Bucs opened their conference slate by spanking Guilford, 61-35, at Greensboro. Their next conference battle saw them wallop Catawba here, 62-19. In their next hoop outing, played here, the Piratenome were edged out by High Point, 59-58, when the Panthers' Jesse Joyce dropped in a field goal in the closing seconds to cap the win.

Appalachian fell before the Buccos here, 71-55. Champion Lenoir Rhyne put the skids under the locals, however, with a stinging 62-51 defeat in a game played on the East Carolina court. Catawba gained a 66-57 revenge win on the Indians' home court.

The Portermen stepped back into the win column by soundly trouncing Atlantic Christian College, 83-35, here. This win over their arch rivals also let the Bucs keep the Cherished Bohunk trophy. The Pirates lost another one-pointer, this time to Elon here, by a 75-71 count. Dave Moody dropped in a field goal with five seconds to go for the Christians' win. East Carolina dumped the Christians here by 74-62, however, to gain sweet revenge.

At Lenoir Rhyne, the Bears tripped the Bucs, 61-55 for the hoop champions' second victory over the locals. Appalachian took the measure of the Pirates, 66-57 in a game played here. From here on, the Pirates appeared invincible, as they gathered in victories in their last five encounters, all of which were impressive triumphs. With All-Conference Sonny Russell pouring in 35 points, the Bucs vanquished West Carolina, 98-69, and the next night almost duplicated that feat, smothering the Catanoments by 98-68. Journeying to High Point, the locals spanked the Panthers, 81-72 as Russell hit for 33 points. At Wilson, the Bucs turned in the highest point total in East Carolina history as they completely out-classed Atlantic Christian, 106-70, in the last game of the season.

In non-conference affairs, the Pirates lost to Camp Lejeune here, 63-62, were beaten by the strong semi-pro McCrary Eagles here, 61-50, but beat the Wilson Teachers of Washington, D. C., here by 64-59. They lost to Norfolk Navy here, 65-52, and fell before the Marines at Camp Lejeune again, 74-64. In their last non-conference contest, they gained revenge over the McCrary Eagles by topping them, 79-78, at Ashboro.

East Carolina fielded a tall, talented but inexperienced squad this season. There were two freshmen on the starting five, and four on the first ten. Two sophomores were starters, while another was a top-flight reserve on the top ten. Only one junior was on the first five, and another junior alternated with one of the sophomores as a starter. Only one senior, Jim Blake, a reserve center, was on the squad. All-Conference Sammy Bus-sell, a sophomore, and freshman sensation Charlie Huffman, were the starting forwards. Toddy Fennell, a junior, was top man at center while Bobby Hodges, freshman, and John Postas, sophomore, were starters at the guard posts. Lou Collie, junior, alternated with Postas as starting guard. Richard Blake, a sophomore; Paul Jones, freshman; Clarence Butler, freshman, and Jim Blake were the top reserves.

Russell was the top point manufacturer for the Pirate hardwood club this season and was a brilliant ball handler and defensive player. He pumped in 334 markers in the 21 games the Bucs played. Huffman was second-high point getter with 288 counters. Hodges, big 6-foot 5-inch 7-pound stalwart, came in third with 250 points. Fennell, a standout playmaker and offensive player, tallied 193. Collie was also an outstanding ball handler and defensive player, and Postas, 6-foot 6-inch lad, was tops under the baskets.

With all this material on hand, Coach Porter should have an excellent crop to till the next few years, unless the world situation draws some of his boys into active service. The majority of them are in the AROTC here, and should be around for awhile.

Coach Charlie Bill Moye's freshman cage team, led by Carl King, romped to six victories in nine tries. They stopped Tarboro High, Washington High, Windsor High, Wilmington Junior College, Nahunter High and New Bern High, Camp Lejeune High. State Class A champs, topped the Buc Frosh twice, and Beaufort High whipped them once. In addition to King, Moye's best looking prospects for varsity play were Jim Piner, Tommy Owens, Pete Williams and Paul Cameron.

Coach Johnny Long

Honorary Co-Captains Crowell Williamson, left, and Bill Torrens

Boxing at East Carolina received a terrific jolt this year, and not from the fists of any opponents. The Pirate pug, East Carolina students and many fight fans in this area were extremely sorry to hear that intercollegiate boxing would be done away with here. A ruling by the State Board of Education caused this action just as the locals were getting ready for the 1951 campaign.

East Carolina was fast becoming recognized as the producer of one of the finest boxing teams in this area. In past years, they met such top-flight squads as The Citadel and the University of South Carolina, both powerful members of the Southern Conference. The Pirates did well against these strong foes. They did so well, in fact, that they were invited to the Southern Intercollegiate Boxing tournament in South Carolina last year and were slated to appear in that nationally famous meet again this year.

Coach Johnny Long worked hard with his boys, and they in turn worked hard for him and East Carolina, preparing for the anticipated season of ring action. Their hard work was in vain, and so we hope that these few pages, which we dedicate to them, will in some small way help make up for the disappointment they suffered for not being able to fight for East Carolina.

There were strong indications of another successful season this year. Among the veterans back were Crowell Williamson, one of the top Pirate pugs as a freshman last year, and Bill Torrens, a seasoned veteran and outstanding performer for the past three years. A bright new prospect was found in Pete Meadows, a former member of the Cherry Point Marines' famous boxing team. Several other newcomers appeared to be excellent material for forming a top-notch ring team. They included Carlton Gill, Tom Rollins, Henry Fordham, Farrell Memory, Jerry Braswell and Tom Cox.

To Johnny and his boys we offer our humble gratitude and our deepest regrets for the fact that they were not allowed to take to the field of battle for dear of East Carolina.

North State Conference Champs

Bill Stalls, captain of the 1950 Bue links team, and individual North State golf champion.

The Pirate linksmen of 1950 raked in the first North State championship for East Carolina. The college has been a member of the conference only since 1947.

Captain Bill Stalls led the way to the crown for the Bucs. He also heaped more honors on East Carolina by winning the North State individual championship in a tourney played at Greensboro. Stalls, who has continually led the Pirates through three years of golfing, carded rounds of 71-76 for a 147 total to whip High Point's John Kupice who had a 74-77-151 score for second place.

Moulton Massey, East Carolina's No. 2 linkster, was third in this tournament with a 74-79-153 score. Other Pirates in the tournament were Walter Wells (85-79-164) and Joe Exum (81-87-168).

East Carolina copped the league crown by winning six out of six loop matches during the 1950 season. The Bucs have lost only one conference match since they started playing golf in 1947, and that one was to High Point, then the circuit champions.

The Pirates racked up a season record of seven triumphs and only two setbacks. These two losses were at the hands of the strong Wake Forest Deacons of the Southern conference.

Guilford was first on the schedule for the locals, and the Quakers fell by a 19½-7½ score in a match played here.

Moulton Massey

Massey led the way for the Buccos by posting a 76 for medalist honors. The winners were playing without Stalls, who was competing in the Azalea Open Golf tournament in Wilmington. Incidentally, Stalls did all right for himself at Wilmington, placing high among the field of amateurs there.

The Pirates topped Guilford here again, this time to the tune of 29½-6½. With Stalls still in Wilmington, Exum paced the Pirates with a medalist score of 77. Wells and Milton Zellin were close behind with 78's.

Wake Forest handed the locals a stinging 21-6 defeat here. Stalls, back in the fold for the first time since the start of the season, kept up his great playing by tying the Deacs' Arnold

Walter Wells

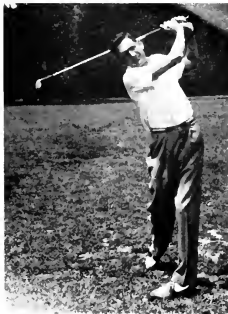

Charlie Bill Moye

Palmer, one of the top golfers in the Southern conference. Zellin was the only Buc to win in this match. He stopped Wake Forest's Randolph 2½-1½.

East Carolina broke back into the win column by overwhelming Elon here, 23½-3½. Massey was medalist in this meet. He also beat Dave Mondy, defending North State individual champ, 3-0. Every EC linkster won his match in this one.

Elon gave the Pirates a little tougher match playing on the Christians' home links, but they still bowed before the locals by an 18½-8½ count. Bill Stalls gained revenge by beating Mondy, the man who had whipped him for the North State title in '49. Zellin won over his fifth opponent of the year without losing.

Joe Exum

Camp Lejeune's Marine linksters fell before the Pirates 15-12. Stalls led the way with a 3-0 win over Lejeune's ace, Hartman. Wells and Charlie Bill Moye also posted 3-0 victories.

Wake Forest again beat the Bucs, this time by a 23-3 score at Raleigh. Stalls suffered his first loss in match play as an East Carolina golfer when Arnold Palmer whipped him 2½-1½. Zellin lost his first match of the year by bowing to the Deacons' Edens by 2-1. Wells was the only Buc golfer who didn't lose; he tied Agnes 1½-1½.

The Buccos sewed up the North State title by soundly trouncing High Point's Panthers here twice, by scores of 19-8 and 20-7. In the 19-8 triumph Stalls was again the leader, as he won medalist honors with a 70, 2 under par, and defeated his foe 3-0. Exum and Moye also turned in 3-0 victories to help win the match.

Stalls was once more top man in the Bucs' final match and 20-7 victory over High Point. The Pirate ace carded a 67, 5 under par for medalist honors, and another 3-0 win. Moye also turned in a 3-0 triumph to share honors with Stalls.

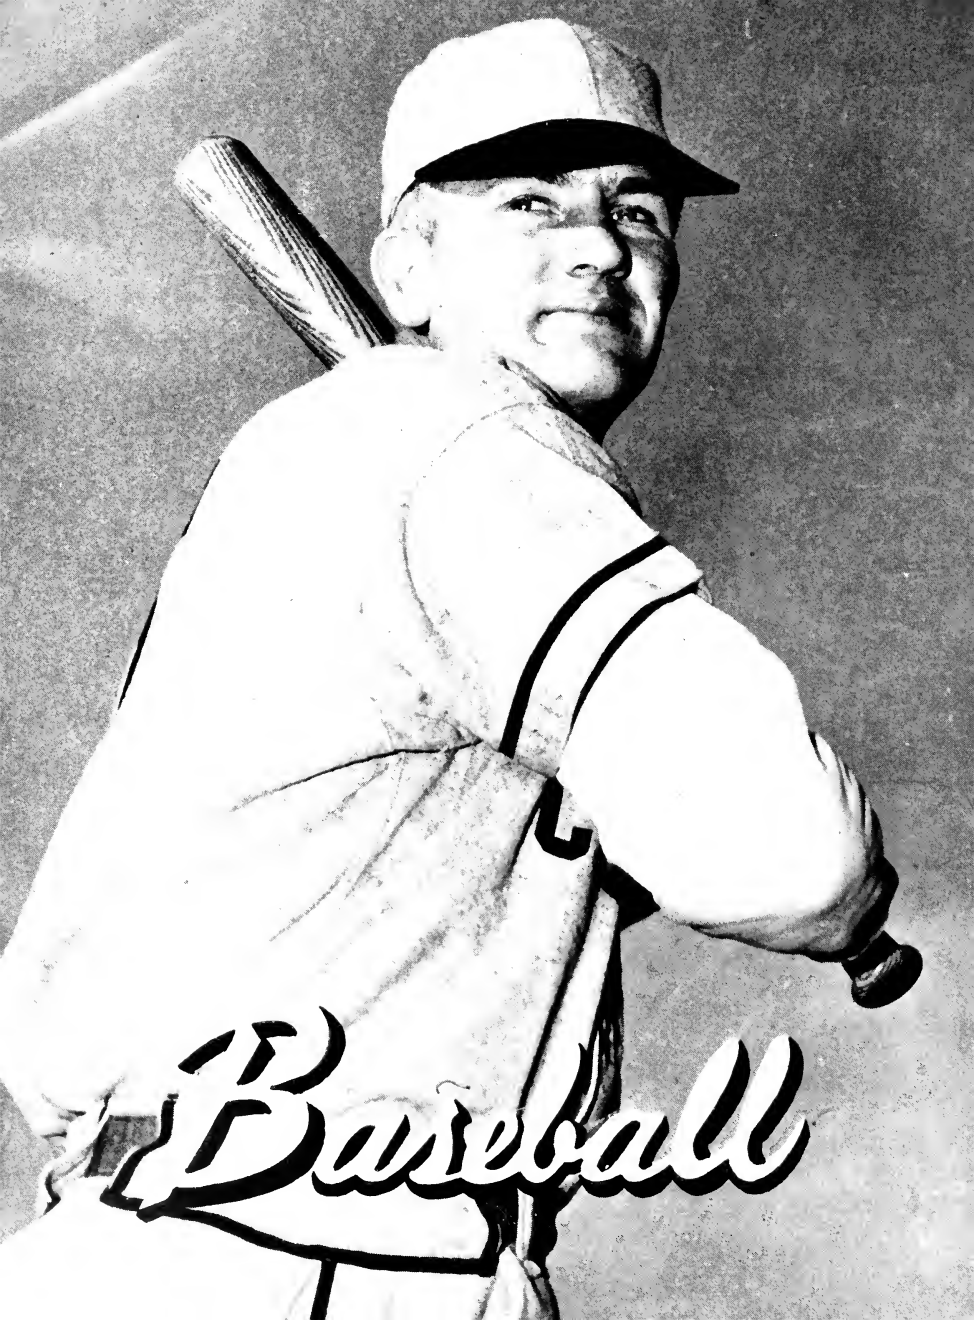

That is the story of the 1950 Pirate linksters. That's the way they brought home the first North State conference championship to dear ol' East Carolina.

Massey sinks a putt as Moye and Wells look on.

Baseball

Coach Jack Boone

George Wood and Jack Wallace, honorary co-captains

The Pirate baseballers of East Carolina turned in a commendable record of eleven victories, two ties, and ten defeats for the 1950 season. They won eight and lost eight in North State conference play to grab fifth place in the loop, just one game behind Atlantic Christian College.

One of the top honors did fall to East Carolina, even though the Pirates didn't win the crown. Vernon Jones, a four-year veteran on the Buc diamond nine, landed a spot on the All North State conference squad. Jones pitched and played outfield for the Bucs. He was one of the top twirlers and a leader at the plate. He is pictured on the introductory page to the baseball section. Jones was lost to the squad through graduation, as were such other stars as Bob McCotter, Stan Terrill, Frank Ceruzzi, Jimmy Flye, John Morris, Howard Whitehurst, George Wood, and Carlton Fleetwood.

Starting with just a few veterans and a host of newcomers, the Bucs dropped their opener with Guilford here, 11-4. The locals caught fire in their next two games as they edged out Lenoir Rhyne 3-2, and outscored High Point 10-9.

Coach Jack Boone's lads fell before Catawba 4-2, but in their next outing they spanked Wilson Teachers College of Washington, D. C., by a 16-4 margin. This non-conference crew retaliated the next day, however, and trimmed the Pirates 5-3.

Elon, defending champs of the NS loop and winners of the crown again in '30, topped the Pirates by 5-1. The Bucs then beat the Greenville Robins of the Coastal Plain league, 5-3.

The Bulldogs of Atlantic Christian, arch rivals of the Pirates, tripped the Boonemen 13-9 and took home the cherished Bohunk trophy. The locals bounced back into the win column with a boom, however, as they swept in both ends of two doubleheaders, one from Western Carolina Teachers College, by scores of 4-3 and 10-1, and on from Appalachian by 7-5 and 6-4 counts.

This moved the Bucos into third place in NS standings. At this point, they played their first game away from home, going to Norfolk to tie the Little Creek Amphibs, 2-2 in a 12-inning affair. While at Norfolk, the Pirates lost to Norfolk Naval Air station, 8-7, and then battled to another 12-inning deadlock, this time with Norfolk Recreation station. The score was 6-6.

Back in conference play, Boone's boys dropped a 7-1 decision to Catawba on the Indians' diamond. Elon handed the Bucs a 6-5 setback at Burlington. It was in this game that Fred Sales, ace Pirate bat-man, had his hitting streak of 17 games broken.

The East Carolinians gained revenge over Norfolk Naval Air station by whipping them, 6-1, at East Carolina. The locals then turned back High Point, 6-5, at High Point, but were stopped, 13-0, by Lenoir Rhyne at Hickory.

At Greensboro the Pirate nine hung up their last win of the year by trouncing Guilford 8-1. They lost their last game of the year to Atlantic Christian, 8-2, enabling the Bulldogs to keep the Bohunk trophy.

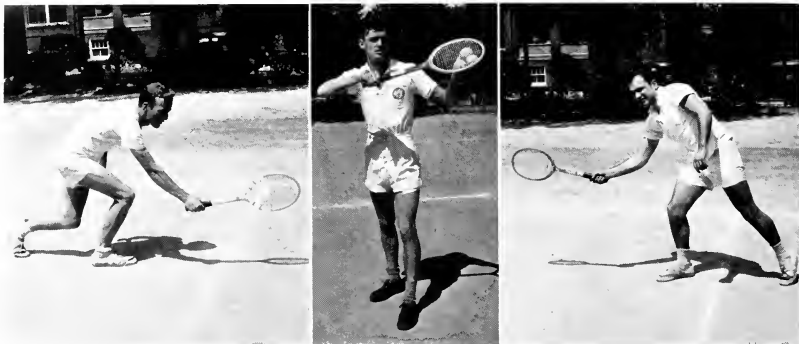

Thus the Pirate baseballers closed the pages on a chapter of East Carolina sports—a chapter that saw much success and some regrets, the biggest regret being due to the loss of the Bohunk trophy to Atlantic Christian.

To Coach Boone and his lads we doff our hats in gratitude for their fine work.

East Carolina's 1950 tennis team didn't win a match the entire season, but it displayed a brand of sportsmanship that tags the '50 netters as one of the outstanding tennis squads in the history of the sport at the college.

Plunging into one of the roughest schedules ever stated by an East Carolina net team, the valiant Pirates entered into every foray with the determination to give their best for dear of Teachers College. With only two veterans—Art Holland and Correll Bass—back, and a host of promising but untried newcomers, the Buccos carried the Purple-and-Gold against such schools as Wake Forest and North Carolina State, plus several North State clubs. These newcomers showed up well during the season despite the poor record. They include Dick Palmer, Dave Jones, Max Garrell, Vernon Tyson, and Rex Guthrie.

The Pirates met Guilford here to open the season. The Quakers won a hard-fought 4-3 victory, Guilford was met here again in the second match of the season, and again won by a close 4-3 margin.

North Carolina State, next on the roster, whipped the locals 9-0 at Raleigh. Elon handed the Pirate netmen their fourth straight defeat with an 8-1 whipping delivered here. Wake Forest kept the Bucs on the wrong side of the ledger by soundly trouncing them 9-0 at Wake Forest.

The Bucs journeyed to Elon for their sixth match of the year, and this time gave the Christians a tougher battle than before. Elon won that one 6-4.

High Point, net kings of the North State conference, tripped the locals twice here by scores of 9-0 and 8-1, to close out the season for the Pirates.

Thus the Buccaneer netters concluded their schedule without a victory in actual scores. However, they won a great victory still—the undying gratitude of their fellow students for their great sportsmanship. To them we offer in tribute a vote of thanks.

ATHLETIC ORGANIZATIONS AT EAST CAROLINA

The Varsity club has as its purpose the bringing together in a fraternal organization those men of East Carolina who have won monograms in EC intercollegiate sports. This group strives to promote sportsmanship among its fellows and to make them men who are "strong in mind, body, and spirit," who shall devote their lives to things worthwhile.

Highlights of the year are the annual dance at which the Varsity Club Sweetheart is crowned, receiving new members, and the scholarship fund drive.

. . . who by their generous support and co-operation have helped to make this, the 1951 Tecoan, a reality instead of a dream.

Every college likes to know that it has the support of its hometown. The City of Greenville has more than demonstrated this support . . . and we thank them. In turn, they deserve your loyal support and patronage.

Now as the last clicking of the typewriters can be heard, the editor and business manager would like to take this opportunity to wish the 1952 Tecoan staff a most happy and successful year.

the 1990s, the number of people with a mental health problem has increased in the UK (Mental Health Act 1983, 1990).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of people with mental health problems. The Department of Health (1999) has set out a strategy for mental health care in the UK. This strategy is based on the principles of recovery, self-help, and self-empowerment. The strategy is based on the idea that people with mental health problems can lead a full and meaningful life. The strategy is based on the idea that people with mental health problems can be active participants in their own care. The strategy is based on the idea that people with mental health problems can be supported to live in their own homes and communities.
